NORTH AUGUSTA ROUND ROBIN March 16, 2004

The weather ended up being better than expected, with a light drizzle for part of the morning and clearing skies for the end of the round. The field of 77 women played in just-about record time today, with lunch finished, prizes awarded and the dining room emptied by 2:30 p.m. Edith Buchanan and her ladies, with the help of the pro, David Usry, did a fine job for us today.

Montano goes for fourth CSRA title

Augusta's Elaine Montano might win her fourth CSRA Women's Golf Association 54-Hole Championship without swinging a club today.

Montano is the 36-hole leader, but today's final round at Savannah Lakes Village's Tara Course might be cancelled because of bad weather. If that happens, it will become a 36-hole tournament and Montano will be declared the champion.

Pat Sullivan of the CSRA Women's Golf Association said a decision will be made by 7:30 this morning. A shotgun start is scheduled for 9 a.m.

Montano, who shot 77 at Gordon Lakes Golf Course on Monday and 80 at Mount Vintage Plantation Golf Club on Tuesday, leads by four shots over Liz Scheuer (79-82). The next-closest golfer is Eydie Jones (83-83), who is eight back.

Montano won this tournament in 1987, 2002 and 2003.

This award is given to a member who has served on the Board of Directors in various capacities for a total of 10 years. This year's award of a certificate and a sterling silver CSRA medallion goes to Nancy Prendergast, who has served on the board continuously since 1994 in the following capacities: Midland Valley representative, Vice-President, President, and Handicap Chairman, which includes being in charge of the Memorial Cup tabulations and running the Lady/Pro. Many thanks go to Nancy for her decade of service to this organization.

The Handicap Chairman calculates this award, based on a specific tabulation formula from the USGA.

This year's Most Improved Golfer award went to Cathy McKie of North Augusta CC.

(See page 9 of the 2004 CSRA Handbook for a more lengthy explanation.) The Handicap Chairman keeps track of all of the points throughout the year and presents both prizes and money cards to the top women for the year. The winners are as follows:

Overall Memorial Cup Winner: Cathy McKie (700 points)
Low Gross Cup Winner: Liz Scheuer (300 points)

Jayne Becker Donna Hutto Cathy McKie Nancy Prendergast

Hole In One Trophy

Liz Scheuer received the traveling Hole-In-One trophy for her shot at the August Round Robin at Goshen Plantation.

Finally, we thank the CSRA representatives, golf pros, maintenance crews, food and beverage folks, and other helpers at Gordon Lakes, Mount Vintage, and Savannah Lakes for hosting the three days of this organization's 43rd Annual 54 Hole Tournament. It was a memorable one.

Final CSRA Team Play Match for the 2003-2004 Season

The final team play match of the season was played on Monday, June 28, at Savannah Lakes Village -- Tara Course. The weather was iffy all day, with wind at times and rain coming at the very end, but it failed to dampen the spirits of the gals who came and played. The course was in excellent condition and the ladies commented on how nice it was to ride the course, even with the previous week's rains.

Total team stats are in a mailing that will follow. This e-mail will just give some congratulations, some atta-boys, a listing of each team's participants over the season, and some candid photos from the luncheon. If your name was inadvertently omitted from your team's list, it was because your team captain was asked to name all members on the spur of the moment this afternoon. If she left you off, she's very sorry.

First, congratulations go to Goshen Plantation and their team of women who have managed not only to regain the Team Play Gross title which they won last year, but to capture the Team Play Net title, too. In 2003, their gross team total points were 60.5. They outdid themselves this year with a gross total of 72.0. Their net total was not too shabby, either, with a total of 55.0, 6.5 points beyond last year's net winner. Way to go, Goshen Plantation. Their team captain this year was Sandra Moody, with the following players over the season, in alphabetical order: Corkie Birdsall, Lorene Coursey, Freida Goodson, Eydie Jones, Mary Helen McElreath, Helga Mele, Elaine Montano, JoAnn Sexton, and Deb Szuper.

JoAnn Sexton, Mary Helen McElreath, Lorene Coursey, Eydie Jones Helga Mele, and Deb Szuper

The "Atta-boys" go to Cedar Creek, who survived their very first year of team play participation. Their captain was Pat Sullivan. The team members consisted of Helen Barry, Barb Fischer, Gail Hooke, Francis Laska, Helene Stamm, and Mimi Whittkamp.

NEXT YEAR

Team Play Coordinators are chosen by club in alphabetical order. The rotation falls to West Lake and next year's team coordinator will be Debra Hatcher. Thanks go to this year's coordinator, Shelly Evenson from SLV, for all of the time and effort she has spent in making this year's events run smoothly. (It's a thankless job, but don't tell Debra.)

Debra Hatcher and Shelly Evenson

In addition, Shelly announced that Gordon Lakes plans to field a team for next year's Team Play season, so there will be eleven teams in 2005.
